

RTU Course "Internship"

22702 null

General data

Code	IUF740
Course title	Internship
Course status in the programme	Internship
Course level	Post-graduate Studies
Course type	Professional
Field of study	Business Management and Administration
Responsible instructor	Natalija Lāce
Academic staff	Konstantins Kozlovskis Nadežda Semjonova Nadežda Koleda Jūlija Bistrova Guna Ciemleja Tālis Laizāns
Volume of the course: parts and credits points	1 part, 4.0 Credit Points, 6.0 ECTS credits
Annotation	Internship includes combination of students' theoretical knowledge with practical work; introduction to the work according to the study profile and organization of work; development and presentation of the report on internship according to the requirements of the respective academic regulations.
Goals and objectives of the course in terms of competences and skills	The purpose of internship is to acquire practical skills in independent work; systematize, consolidate and extend theoretical and practical knowledge; strengthen existing knowledge in solving financial problems; develop skills working with specific company data; develop a skill to prove the significance of the problem, as well as to develop and demonstrate the ways of solving it. Students will be able publicly defend the internship report and reasonably present his/her opinion.
Structure and tasks of independent studies	Independent work is organized in accordance with the internship task, which comprise the selection of study subject, collection and analysis of data related to study subject, drawing of conclusions and proposals.
Recommended literature
Course prerequisites	The study subject is based on the knowledge acquired during the 1 year of master studies.

Learning outcomes and assessment

Learning outcomes	Assessment methods

Study subject structure

Part	CP	Hours per Week			Tests
		Lectures	Practical	Lab.	Test	Exam	Work
1.	4.0	0.0	0.0	0.0			*